

Siner Gonenc Boquin

Siner Gonenc Boquin graduated from State Conservatoire and joined the State Opera and Ballet of Izmir, Turkey in 1988. Besides her dancing career, she worked there as a Ballet Master, Company Manager and Associate Director. Since 2005, she has been collaborating with Yannick Boquin as his assistant, and focusing his method and style of teaching. In March 2016 she retired from Izmir State Ballet. Today, she is an International guest teacher, and founder and artistic director of Classical Ballet Camp in Turkey, and currently resides in France.

Siner currently works as a guest teacher at the following companies and academies:

Béjart Ballet Lausanne

The Houston Ballet Company

Semperoper,Dresden

Birmingham Royal Ballet

National Ballet of Mexico

National Ballet of Portugal

Estonian National Ballet
National Ballet of Croatia
Gauthier Dance Stuttgart
Junior Ballet Antwerp
Compagnie Chorégraphique François Mauduit
Junior Ballet Arles
Houston Ballet Academy
Royal Ballet School Antwerp
Royal Conservatory Den Hague
Escuela Superior de Musica y Danza de Monterrey
ESDC Rosella Hightower (Ecole Supérieure de Danse de Cannes)
Conservatório Internacional de Ballet e Dança Annarella Sanchez
Jean W. Wong Ballet School in Hong Kong,
Casa de Ballet Bucharest

She has given workshops as a guest teacher at:

Architanz, Japan, 2010-2016
Dance Nordic Seminar in Stockholm, August 2014 -2016
International Summer Ballet School, Dresden, August 2015/2018
Art of Innovative Ballet Master Class, Zürich, August 2017
Summer School in Catania, August 2017-2018
International Summer School at The McDonald College, Sydney, Australia, January 2019

